Information is communicated to the correspondent in a letter received dated Feb. 5.

A schooner Hope, captain Jones, from Bordeaux, said to be a privateer, of Falmouth, on trial in the court of admiralty to be restored. A de, or restoration, information was of the Mars, that a trunk of importance, belonging to a clerk in New York, was a particular spot on board the ship, subsequently took place; the place described, and demanded of Mons. BY THIS DAY'S MAIL.

NEW YORK, March 21.

Yesterday arrived the last sailing ships Robt. Burns, Waite; Caledonia, Hender- son, and Phocion, Stanton, all in 28 days from Liverpool; and captains Waite and Henderson have politely favored the edi- tor of the Mercantile Advertiser with Lon- don papers to the 17th February, inclusive, and papers to the 18th, and Lloyd's List's to the 16th. The following are the only interesting articles they contain.

LONDON, February 10.

An American vessel arrived at Guern- sey, from St. Maloes, after a short passage, repeats a former account, which stated, that the embargo in the ports of France is strictly enforced, with respect to all nations, those of America excepted. Bonaparte would be deficient in his usual political sagacity and foresight if he did not study to conciliate the Americans by all possible means, and therefore we believe the above account. His management of America has thus afforded a new proof of their ex- traordinary address. By his violent de- crees against neutral commerce, he induc- ed ministers in retaliation to resort to the late orders in council; but it now appears that the French decrees are suffered to re- main a dead letter to the Americans, while the English orders in council are enforced against the commerce of the United States. He therefore has done little to offend A- merica, and has, by that title, done a great deal to commit England and America in warfare. —(Globe.)

A morning paper says—"An expedition is in a state of preparation for an object of great importance, but the reports re- specting which it would be improper at present to mention. We may state how- ever, that according to letters from Ply- mouth, sir Sidney Smith is daily expect- ed; that port from the Tagus, as he is to be employed on the service to which we have alluded."

February 11.

Rear admiral Bertie has sailed with a squadron to take the Channel station, left by admiral Duckworth, now in pursuit of the Rochefort squadron.

February 13.

A rumor was yesterday in circulation, which we believe to be utterly unfounded, that sir Samuel Hood in the Centaur, had been captured on his passage to England, by the Rochefort squadron.

All accounts from Yorkshire and Lan- cashire are full of dreadful complaints on the state of trade, the woollen and cot- ton manufactures are said to be nearly at a stand; several respectable houses in York- shire have had letters from their friends in America desiring them not to purchase any more wool on any account, and many both woollen & cotton manufacturers have been under the necessity of discharging their work people and of shutting up their manufactories till the return of a better trade.

Lord Erskine, in the debate on the Copenhagen expedition, alluding to the new names given to the Danish ships ob- served, that the conduct of ministers, in this particular, reminded him of the tricks of spies to disguise stolen children. All strangers are strictly prohibited from taking notes of the proceedings in the house of lords. They may "mark and inwardly digest" as much as they like, but packet none.

February 15.

The expedition under the command of Li- gen, Sir George Prevost, sailed from Ports- mouth on Saturday for Halifax. The 7th, 8th, 13th, and 28d regiments of foot, accom- panied him. This force would be further aug- mented by the 98th regiment from Bernin- da, and the 99th, 101st, and 10th royal veter- an battalion, at Halifax, where the staff of the army already is. The expedition under general Spencer remained at Falmouth on Friday last, expecting to be joined by the troops collecting at Portsmouth. The two corps united would amount to nearly 10,000 men. From the magnitude of this force it would seem as if government had come to a determination to defend our possessions in North America to the last extremity, in case of a war with the United States.

Sir Sidney Smith, we understand, has pro- ceeded to the Brazils, to take the command there. The squadron which is to blockade the Tagus, is under the command of Sir C. Cotton and rear admiral Otway.

February 16.

FROM THE PARIS PAPERS, "ROYAL DECREE.

Considering that every European nation ought to co-operate with all its power to the triumph of the cause of the continent, in a contest which will not be of long duration, and

Considering that our particular duty, and the dearest interests of our people, command us to accede in all points to the desires of his majesty the emperor of the French, our illustrious brother and even to surpass his hopes; Considering that the indemnity and relief which our kingdom has a right to demand & expect, depend entirely upon the powerful intervention of France;

Considering in fine, that however great the sacrifices hitherto made by this country may be and however powerful its situation, both under the relations of commerce and those of finance, it is of much greater interest to dissi- pate all the doubts that might exist with re- spect to our intentions, and to prove to Eu- rope, in the most signal manner, our attach- ment, and that of our people to the common cause;

Art. 1. From the publication of the pre- sent decree all the ports of our kingdom shall be shut against all ships whatever be their de- nomination. Those only are excepted from this disposition, and provisionally till a new order of which mention is made in the second Article.

2. Armed ships of our allies are not includ- ed in the exclusion directed by the preceding article. They may enter and quit our ports and bring in their prizes, by conforming to the ordinance issued relative to the entrance and departure of ships of war.

3. Ships of the allies or neutral powers, who may enter our ports to avoid the dangers of sea, shall have no communication with the interior of the kingdom.—They shall be sub- jected to quarantine and under the most se- vere superintendence. The commandant of the port shall make them put to sea as soon as the weather shall permit.

4. Fishing boats are under the direct su- perintendence of the civil and military authori- ties upon the coast. These authorities shall take care on their responsibility, that no com- munication take place by means of the fish- ermen, with the enemy's ships and other ships. To that end there shall be placed as a centinel, a soldier on board each fishing boat. On the return of the boat the centinel shall make his report of what has passed during the fishery, contrary to the disposition of the present decree, and the owner of the boat and crew shall be prosecuted with all the rigor of the laws.

Given at Utrecht, 25d Jan. (Signed)

LOUIS.

The Dutch official Gazette contains a very strong article upon the conduct which the Dutch commerce ought to pursue at present. The following are the most striking passages:

"Abandon common speculation, do not suffer yourselves to be excluded with impunity from the empire of the seas. Fit out private- ers to wrest the prey from the enemy, to procure provisions, become almost the first necessity; it is in the enemies ships that you ought to seek for colonies; it is at their ex- pence you ought to furnish your correspond- ence with what merchandise they want—re- collect the courage of your ancestors; recol- lect you are countrymen of Ruyter & Tromp —must the Danes be, of the least populous nation the only one who dare attack the Eng- lish in open sea? Must history say, that the Danes were in the 19th century what the Dutch were in the 17th? Arm, Dutchmen, let all your ports be filled with armed vessels ready to fall upon the enemy."

February 17.

Two Gottenburgh mails arrived this morn- ing, with letters and papers to the 21st ult. They repeat the report lately circulated in the French and German papers, of a large body of Russian troops having marched to Swedish Finland. That Russia will endeavor to force Sweden into the confederacy against this coun- try, may be considered as certain.

By the Resolution cutter, which arrived on Saturday at Plymouth, and sailed again almost immediately, we learn, that the French in- shore squadron in Brest harbor, were recon- noitered on Wednesday last by the Warrior, 74 guns, Copelin schooner, and King George cutter, when they discovered seven sail of the line, one frigate and a brig; being one frigate and a brig less in number than when seen be- fore. They appeared quite ready for sea, having royal stay sails, gaffs, &c. all bent; and their sails loosed for drying.

Fifteen sail of Russian ships of war, after roaming at large through the Mediterranean, put into Trieste, making with nine sail in the Tagus, a total of twenty-four. Had these a- vowed enemies been taken instead of the Dan- ish fleet, the capture would have added e- qually to our security, and would not have subjected ministers to the reproach so heavily heaped upon them.

The following is the Russian fleet in the Tagus, under the orders of admiral Sinia- vin.

Tevesdie, flag ship, 74 guns, Rafael 74, Simej 74, St. Elena 74, Matchnai 74, Tila- fael 74, Rurvegag 74, Skoroee 64, Jarastoft 64, Keldecina 32. They are ill furnished with supplies, and Lisbon cannot afford what they require.

A Mammoth, in a state of perfect preser- vation, was lately found near Yakoutske, on the borders of the Frozen Ocean. Part of the flesh, the tusks, ears, and tail, had been cut off by the natives; but the skeleton has been miles. The head weighs 460 lb. the horns are nine and a half feet long, and weigh 400 lbs; the height of the back is ten and a half feet, and the length sixteen and a half feet; bristles of the back were of a reddish color, and many of them measured two feet four inches.

According to the last return made by the Russian ministry, the Russian navy consists at present of 43 sail of the line, 24 frigates, 59 cutters, brigs, &c. and 226 smaller ves- sels. Of this force 10 ships of the line and 4 frigates are in the Black sea, and besides the 21 line of battle ships in other seas.

Letters from Madrid state, that according to reports current in that city, the king of Spain is to cede Navarre and Catalonia to France, for part of Portugal, and the queen of Etruria is to have the remainder of the latter kingdom.

The order for micmaning the Danish ships has been revoked, as these micmaners might be a bar to the restoration of the vessels to their owners, should such a measure be deem- ed necessary.

Price of Stocks yesterday.—Bank Stock, 233—3 per cent. reduced, 64½—3 per cent. consols, 63½ ½.

NORFOLK, March 18.

On Wednesday evening a British govern- ment brig arrived in Lynnhaven bay, direct from England, with dispatches for Mr. Rose. She left England as late, we are informed, as the 4th of February.

From the marine list of captain English late of the ship Belfast.

Left London 23d December and Cowes the 18th January. At London, brig Numa, Wor- thington, from Gothenberg for St. Bartholo- mew, to sail in a few days. Schooner Vir- ginia, Poulson, of Norfolk, uncertain where bound; ship Resolution, Bunker, from New York for Amsterdam, the captain to leave London the 24th December, the ship in the Downs; ship Phillipsburg, Leffingwell, in the Downs for Rotterdam, to sail first wind. At Cowes, Holland Trader, Sinclair, from New York to Amsterdam; Logan, Myrick, do. do. Morning Star, Kiopkins, Boston to Bordeaux; Algol, Allen, Salem to Nantes, all warned of blockade, and waiting custom house certi- ficates to proceed to other ports. The Hyades, Savage, with Rice, was captured on the 31st December, in going from Cowes to London, and carried into Calais. The Triton, Brown, from Baltimore bound to Amsterdam, warned of blockade, arrived at Cowes on the 6th and sailed for London on the 9th Jan, put back from the Downs for Cowes, with the loss of her anchors and cables, got on shore in go- ing into Cowes, but would not have to dis- charge.

The sloop John and William, Hodge, from this port with 450 bls. flour, arrived at Gib- ral the 2d Jan.

Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

THURSDAY, MARCH 24.

From Liverpool, Feb. 6.—"Premiums of insurance on American vessels have risen to 8 guineas. In consequence of your Embargo all kinds of American produce have risen ve- ry considerably; and will continue to rise as long as the Embargo lasts: which I hope will not be long."

A London paper of the 15th January says. "most of the American ships which have been warned by our cruisers of the blockade are preparing to return to America. Those which have been re-captured from the enemy will be detained for a determination of the court of admiralty, as to what, or if any sal- vage is to be allowed to the re-captors."

From the National Intelligencer of yesterday.

Our readers will perceive by our Congres- sional journal, that a MESSAGE was yester- day received from the president. It was delivered to each house about a quarter after eleven. The doors, both of the Senate and the house, were immediately closed, and con- tinued closed until past 3 o'clock when an adjournment took place.

A large mass of documents accompany the message, the greater part imparted without confidence, and the residue, only so far con- fidential, we believe, as relates to opinions ex- pressed by or entertained of some public cha- racters, which it has not heretofore been usual to publish. The whole field of our foreign relations, so far as they bear upon existing differences, is disclosed; including the entire correspondence relative to the Chesapeake between Mr. Monroe and the British govern- ment, and between Mr. Madison & Mr. Rose, the correspondence on our general relations with England, and consequently that which gave rise to the treaty signed by our mini- sters and returned by the President; and the correspondence with the other belligerent power. The documents are so very volumi- nous that their reading will consume several days, when all, except those parts which we have stated to be confidential, will, it is pre- sumed be ordered to be printed. We shall seize the earliest opportunity of presenting them to the public.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, March 22.

Immediately on the meeting of the house a message in writing was received from the president of the U. S. apparently compre- hending a voluminous mass of documents.

The Speaker declared the message to be of a confidential nature.

Mr. Burwell conceived that a part only of the message was confidential; he wished that part which was not confidential should be first read.

Mr. Efftes observed that the confidential part might be so blended with the other, that they could not be understood if read dis- tinctly.

Mr. Campbell could not see the propriety of any discussion on this subject in public; he wished the galleries now to be cleared.

They were cleared accordingly.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber in the month of January a NEGRO MAN called

ABRAHAM,

OF a very slender form about five feet 8 or 9 inches high, thin visage, a stoop in his walk, a down look when spoken to and rather fond of drink.

He was seen lurking in the neighborhood of the Great and Little Falls of Potomac for some time; 'tis believed he crossed at the Great Falls and is now at work on the new road leading from Baltimore to Fredericktown, or that he is in Baltimore.

He acknowledged that he did belong to me but is now entitled to his freedom. The a- bove reward will be given to any person who will apprehend said negro and all reasonable expenses paid.

Mount-Washington for Sale.

I will sell my FARM in Fairfax county, and give immediate possession. It is less than three miles from Alexandria, and six from the George-Town ferry—the distance from the projected bridge will be less—the house stands on an elevated hill, and overlooks the City, Alexandria, the river, with the shore, and hills of Maryland. The house which I erected, and is nearly finished, consists of a center house two stories high, and wings of one, joined to it, by circular corridors, the north wing contains 2 small rooms, the front of it, and the corridor adjoining, intended for a green house, this leads to a drawing room—a dining room separated from it by the passage and stair-case, is next to the south corridor which contains 3 closets, and leads to the kitchen—two small rooms in this wing with the kitchen—a pump of excellent water at the door. The second story of the center house contains 3 chambers and a dressing room, with fire places—a large closet adjoins the dining room—one of the same size opens on the stair case, both fitted up with shelves—a store room in the garret, and cupola on the house top, from whence is seen a delightful, variegated landscape, completes the description of the mansion house. A neat cottage accommodates laborers, and there are stables, a carriage house, and ice house; the farm contains 103 acres, 70 enclosed and cultivated, the rest in wood; this place boasts the finest collection of fruit that I have seen, besides every other sort; the list given to me was 800 apples, 800 peaches, and 300 cherry trees; I have added several hundred of the best kinds.—The garden consists of 12 large squares, the soil enriched and borders filled with fruit trees, and bushes; it is surrounded by a live cedar hedge, which also extends on each side of the house: the former proprietor possessed much taste, and collected many ornamental trees and shrubs, which are judiciously disposed about the grounds. The soil is suitable for grass, and the portion of ground devoted to timothy and clover, yield an abundant crop; it produced good wheat and oats last year, and I think with small expense may be rendered productive. Those who wish a residence, where health will be preserved, and convenience of intercourse with Alexandria, George-Town, and the seat of government, will find all combined in Mount-Washington. I will shew the premises and impart the terms of sale, upon applications by letters directed to the Post-Office, Alexandria.

Decree in Chancery.

By virtue of a decree of the superior court of chancery for the Richmond district, pronounced on an appeal, wherein Sarah Chapman, widow of Carr Chapman, deceased, and Susanna Chapman, an infant daughter of the said Carr Chapman, by the said Sarah Chapman, her guardian, were appellants, and Thompson and Veitch were appellees, I shall, on the first Monday in April next, before the court house of Prince William county, sell to the highest bidder, for ready money, or on a credit of 6, 12 & 18 months.

A Tract of Land,

IN the same county, which was granted to Thomas Chapman by deeds of lease and release from William Tebbis for 69 1/2 acres, bearing date the 17th and 18th days of June 1774.

Also, one other tract of Land, in the same county, which was conveyed to the said Thomas Chapman by deeds of lease and release from Bertrand Ewell and his wife, and Jesse Ewell and his wife, for 30 acres, more or less, bearing date the 9th and 10th days of April, 1773.

Also, one tract or parcel of Land, which was conveyed to the said Chapman by deeds of lease and release from Jesse Ewell and his wife, and Bertrand Ewell and his wife, for 150 acres, more or less, bearing date the 2d and 3d days of January, 1784, all of which deeds are now of record in the county court of Prince William. And also, all the other estate, right, title, claim and possession which Carr Chapman, on the 20th November, 1797, had of aid in to the land and real estate whereof his father or any of his ancestors had died, seized or possessed. The above description is taken from the mortgage deed executed by Carr Chapman to Thompson & Veitch on the 20th November, 1797, and now recorded in Prince William court, under which the property is sold. It is understood that the three tracts of land have been united into one which adjoins the town of Dumfries. On it there is a dwelling house & some wood. The general rights described will, as it is believed, comprehend a fourth part of the reversion of all the dowerland of Susanna Gwinett, and one fourth part of the reversion of all the land devised by Thomas Chapman to Elizabeth Overill, after the death of the said Susanna and the said Elizabeth. Bond and approved security will be required.
